Remembrance Day Ceremony

On Tuesday, November 10th, our CNB band and choir students helped make our Remembrance Day Ceremony especially meaningful through their beautiful musical performances.

Hadley Coble and Cameron Pannell did an amazing job as our Remembrance Day MC's. Takoda Lindley provided a wonderful land welcome and our band, choir and Indigenous Okanagan song singers all performed very well; we were so proud.

Big thank you to all of our special guests who attended, including RCMP and Military member Andrew Curtis who shared a meaningful message with our school community while we gathered together to honour the courage and sacrifices of those who have served, and reflect on the importance of peace, freedom, and remembrance.

We are incredibly proud of the way our students represented CNB and demonstrated such respect and gratitude. Lest we forget.

Volunteers Needed

Our PAC team is looking for more volunteers to help in the Den Store and with our monthly treat sales. We could really use a couple of helpers in the Den from 11:35 - 12:45. If you are able to help, please contact Christina at christinafabulosity@gmail.com or 250 215 1838.
