Administration's Report:

Principle Curtis Schreiber, Vice Principals: Kyla Babcock and Laurie Fraser

1. Students to Japan – Students had a great trip
2. Reading opportunities starting with Grade 6
3. Middle School Curriculum now on the calendar
4. This year we had "Three Bears" that were the focus during all professional conversations, staff meetings, readings and learning. The following are our goals:

Target 1: To create a culture of care, belonging and character.

Target 2: To create a common research based understanding around how learners learn best through the OECD 7 Principles of Learning.

The seven principles are:

1. Learners at the centre.
2. The social nature of learning.
3. Emotions are integral to learning.
4. Recognising individual differences.
5. Stretching all students.
6. Assessment for learning.
7. Building horizontal connections.

Target 3: To develop common language around communicating student learning in order to understand how to move teaching and learning forward.

The Morning Reading Group is well attended.
